🍷 YOUR WINE GAME JUST GOT AN UPGRADE!

We've refreshed the Food Shed wine department to make finding a great bottle easier—and a lot more fun!

- Curated Finds: Delicious, affordable wines worth bringing to dinner.
- Know Before You Pour: Helpful tasting notes make it easier to find a bottle you'll love.
- Shop Your Values: New shelf tags highlight organic, vegan, fair-trade and cooperatively-owned selections at a glance.
- Drink Local: We've also added spirits from Rush Creek Distilling, made right here in Harvard!

Come explore the expanded selection this week. You just might discover a new favorite and not just because the label is cute. 🍷

One Local Opportunity To Strengthen Our Community In Two Very Practical Ways

Inspire and empower community

Two local programs are helping neighbors in need and creating safe, positive spaces for youth in Woodstock.

Own a Piece of a Stronger Local Food System

For a one-time $200 household investment, you can join 2,734 neighbors helping build a more local, transparent and resilient food system. Headlines about cyclospora, avian flu, shortages and other supply-chain disruptions are reminders of how vulnerable a long, complex food network can be.

You don't have to be an owner to shop at the Food Shed, but when you join, you help strengthen local farms and food businesses, support greater transparency, and build a community-owned food system better prepared for whatever comes next. And yes —owners get some great discounts, too!
